

WAKEFIELD GRAMMAR SCHOOL FOUNDATION (incl EYFS)

DATA PROTECTION NOTICE FOR PUPILS, PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998 ('the DPA'), Wakefield Grammar School Foundation ('the Foundation') is the "data controller" of personal data about pupils and their parents and/or guardians.

Personal data processed by the Foundation or the Schools of the Foundation ('the School')

Personal data processed by the Foundation or the School includes contact details, national curriculum and other assessment results, attendance information, special educational needs, and images of pupils engaging in School activities (and in relation to parents and/or guardians, may include financial information). The School may also process sensitive personal data such as ethnic group, religious beliefs and relevant medical information. Your personal data will usually be collected directly from you, but some may be passed to the School by third parties.

Purposes for which your data may be processed:

Your personal data (including sensitive personal data, where appropriate) is processed by the School strictly in accordance with the Data Protection Act in order to:

- support its pupils' teaching and learning;
- monitor and report on their progress;
- publish examination results [as separately notified to affected pupils and/or their parents and/or guardians];
- provide appropriate pastoral care;
- assess how well the School as a whole is doing;
- communicate with former pupils;
- monitor pupils' email communications, internet use, for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the School Rules;
- where appropriate, promote the School to prospective pupils (including through the School's prospectus and website); and
- other reasonable purposes relating to the operation of the School.

Your right to access your personal data.

Pupils and their parents and/or guardians, as data subjects, have certain rights under the Data Protection Act, including a general right to be given access to personal data held about them by any data controller. The presumption is that by the age of 12 a child has sufficient maturity to understand his/her rights and to make an access request themselves if he/she wishes. A parent would normally be expected to make a request on a child's behalf if the child is younger. If you wish to access your personal data, or that of your child or a pupil for whom you have parental responsibility, then please contact the School in writing.

Third parties with whom the School may need to share your personal data.

From time to time the School may pass your personal data (including sensitive personal data where appropriate) to third parties, including local authorities, other public authorities, independent school bodies such as the Independent Schools Inspectorate and the Independent Schools Council, health professionals and the School's professional advisers, who will process the data:

- to enable the relevant authorities to monitor the School's performance;
- to compile statistical information (normally used on an anonymous basis);
- to secure funding for the School (and where relevant, on behalf of individual pupils);
- to safeguard pupils' welfare and provide appropriate pastoral (and where relevant, medical and dental) care for pupils;
- where specifically requested by pupils and/or their parents or guardians;
- where necessary in connection with learning and extra-curricular activities undertaken by pupils;
- to enable pupils to take part in national and other assessments and to monitor pupils' progress and educational needs;
- to obtain appropriate professional advice and insurance for the School;
- where a reference or other information about a pupil or ex-pupil is requested by another educational establishment or employer to whom they have applied;
- otherwise where reasonably necessary for the operation of the School.

The School may also (unless you request otherwise) share personal data about former pupils with any association, society or club set up to establish or maintain relationships with the Old Savilians (former pupils of QEGS) or WGHS In Touch (former pupils of WGHS), who may contact such former pupils from time to time by post or email about the School or Foundation and its activities, and for promotional and marketing purposes on behalf of the School.

All these are data controllers in respect of the personal data they receive, and must themselves comply with the Data Protection Act 1998.

Further questions

If you have any queries about this Notice or how personal data is processed by the School, please contact the respective School or the Bursar's office.

Review History

Policy written	August 2013	C Hastings
Reviewed	April 2014	L Perry